Baby Boutique Volunteer

About The Organisation

PCCS is an Edinburgh based charity that supports individuals through practical and emotional issues relating to pregnancy, childbirth and early parenthood. We do this by offering a free, professional counselling service and offering free baby clothes and equipment.

About The Role

We are launching a community shop, providing low cost baby clothing and equipment to local families. Our goal is to provide high quality second-hand items at low prices. All money from our shop is put back into our charity, supporting our free baby bank and counselling services.

Job Description

- Sorting and safety checking donated items
- Cash handling
- Assisting and advising customers

Person Specification

- Retail experience is preferable but not necessary
- Knowledge of baby/children's products
- The ability to work as part of a team
- Good communication and organisational skills
